

CARRANZA AND VILLA ON VERGE OF HOSTILITIES

Juarez, Mex., July 1.—That the forces of Villa and Carranza are on the verge of actual hostilities is the statement made by General Villa's supporters here today. Carranza's troops are said to be fortifying Monterey and Saltillo in the expectation of a complete break and fear that Villa will attempt to capture the two cities. Indications are that the final campaign on Mexico City will be delayed several weeks.

CHAMPION KISSER IS

JAILED IN DAVENPORT

Davenport, Iowa, July 2.—The attempt to kiss every woman in his fat good-bye on leaving the city to seek work elsewhere landed F. Lewis, a railroad brakeman, in jail. He first kissed his wife, his children and the hired girl, and then started through the flat on a kissing tour. Miss Elizabeth Murray, a school teacher, notified the police.

REPUBLICANS TO HOLD BIG COUNTY CONVENTION ON 4

A call has been issued by Chairman T. J. Brown for a convention of Houston county Republicans to be held at the court house July 4th, for the purpose of electing four delegates to the state convention which will be held at Birmingham on the 22.

The republicans have invited both wings of the party and all others who are disgruntled, to attend the convention.

It has been stated that at this meeting a full county ticket would be put out, but this is denied by some of the leaders who state that only delegates to the state convention at Birmingham would be elected.

DOTHAN BOY IS APPOINTED

Lester Farmer Chosen as Private Secretary to Congressman-Elect W. O. Mulkey of Third District.

Lester Farmer, eldest son of B. G. Farmer, a well known lawyer, has been appointed private secretary to Congressman-Elect W. O. Mulkey of the Third District. The appointment was announced yesterday by Mr. Mulkey.

As Mr. Mulkey expects to receive his commission Monday as Congressman from the Third District for the short term, he will evidently soon go to Washington to resume his new duties. He will be accompanied by his private secretary, Lester Farmer, who for a year or more has been reading law in his father's office.

The appointment of young Farmer as secretary to Congressman-elect Mulkey will mean much to the Dothan boy, as he will have an opportunity of brushing elbows with men of the hour in the national capital politics. His position will bring him in close touch with the issues of the day and the men whom the people choose to unravel them.

Since the announcement of his appointment, Farmer has been receiving the congratulations of his friends, both young and old, who wish him good luck in Washington.

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED THROUGHOUT BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVANIA

Sarajevo, Bosnia, July 2.—Martial law replaced civil government throughout Bosnia and Herzegovina today but attacks on Serbian churches and residences by Catholic and Muslimmen as a result of Ferdinand's assassination continued.

Several thousand additional troops were ordered to the scene to prevent a rebellion by the enraged Serbs, who are in the majority.

FAIR EXCHANGE

A New Back For An Old One—Now a Dothan Resident Made a Bad Back Happy.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; pinching pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the pain goes no lame that to sleep is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back if the kidneys are weak. You can not reach the cause. Follow the example of this Dothan citizen.

Mrs. R. E. Lee, 514 E. Lafayette St., Dothan, Ala., says: "I had nervous and dizzy spells. My back hurt me and I was restless. In the morning, I felt all tired out. Dean's Kidney Pills, prepared at McClellan's Drug Store, regulated the kidney action and stopped the pain. No other medicine could have done more for me than Dean's Kidney Pills did. I willingly praise what I previously said in their praise." For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents. Foster-McClellan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

THOMPSON GETS TEN YEARS IN PRISON

Charlie Thompson, indicted by the grand jury on a charge of murder in the second degree, was yesterday adjudged guilty of manslaughter and punishment fixed at ten years in the penitentiary by jury.

There was much interest in the outcome of the case, every point being contested by the lawyers on both sides. Thompson was charged with shooting Bill Bevil, the difficulty occurring several years ago. Thompson escaped and left the State but was captured in Louisiana by Sheriff Hay and brought back to Houston county for trial.

TO CANVAS RETURNS.

The returns for the election held June 29, will be canvassed Friday in all the counties in the Third District, and the exact figures as to the number of votes received by the various candidates will be known.

COURT ADJOURNED TODAY.

The Circuit Court, with Judge H. A. Pearce presiding, held a short session this morning but adjourned until the afternoon at which time witnesses to testify in cases expected to go to trial will be present. The witnesses live south of Dothan, and will arrive on the afternoon Bay Line train.

THINK KENTUCKY WILL SOON JOIN DRY STATES

Louisville, Ky., July 2.—That Kentucky will soon join the race of "dry" States, was the confident prediction of W. C. T. U. members here today. Only twenty of the one hundred and twenty counties are now wet, and in these fourteen will hold option elections in ninety days. Temperance workers are waging a desperate fight and predict success.

STRIKERS WOULD BOYCOTT NATIONAL LEAGUE

Pittsburg, Pa., July 2.—Westinghouse strikers today sent Governor Tener an ultimatum that unless he withdraws the state constabulary the strikers would boycott the National Baseball League of which Governor Tener is president.

GOVERNOR PARDONS MAN WHO STOLE FIFTY CENTS

Mobile, Ala., July 2.—Frank Williams of Hale county has been paroled by Governor O'Neal after serving twenty years of fifty years sentence for stealing fifty cents.

If You Suffer

From eye strains, nervousness, headaches or any eye trouble you should consult DR. MASROW at once and have the trouble relieved. He has had 22 years experience correcting defective eyesight by his scientific methods of fitting glasses. But you should see him at once as he leaves Dothan July 1 to be gone until September 1. Call now at his office over the Cash Drug Store, at 111 East Main street.

MORE SENSATIONS IN BAILEY MURDER MYSTERY

New York, July 2.—Sensational developments continue in the Bailey murder mystery in which the wife of a wealthy business man was assassinated in the office of Doctor Edwin Carman.

Following upon the heels of the discovery that Carman's wife used a dictograph to spy upon him, it was learned today that a wealthy Southshore resident threatened to horsewhip the doctor unless he stopped receiving visits from his wife.

Coroner Norton today postponed the inquest until after the autopsy on Mrs. Bailey's body. After an all-night grilling the police decided Carman's wife did not fire the fatal shot at Mrs. Bailey. A sensational arrest is expected.

WHISKEY CASES SETTLED

Lee and John Williams plead guilty to a charge of assault and battery and were fined $50 each in Circuit Court yesterday. Frank Ross, Homer Lewis, A. B. Bland, Carl Dennis and Oscar Wingo plead guilty to violating the prohibition laws, were fined $50 each and sentenced to six months hard labor, but the sentences were suspended. Thirteen whiskey cases were compromised.

PRESIDENT IS CONFERRING WITH BIG BUSINESS MEN

Washington, July 2.—J. M. Morgan conferred with President Wilson today on various aspects of the business and financial problems before the country. This interview was the first of a series the President plans to hold with prominent business men. Henry Ford, the Detroit automobile manufacturer, will call at the White House next week.

While no formal statement was made at the White House, it is believed Morgan presented the Wall Street view of present business conditions and possibly attempted to persuade the President to "go easy" while business is adjusting itself to the new tariff and currency laws.

President Wilson is making an effort to get in touch with business interests throughout the country. He believes personal interviews will convince them that much of the present apprehension is unfounded.

SIDELIGHTS ON MEXICO

By a Veteran

Twenty-five thousand Americans could capture Mexico's chief places in sixty days and a like number of United States soldiers could hold that country, in the opinion of an American who has lived twenty-five years near the west coast of our tumultuous neighbor. He is a civil engineer by training, but now a farmer. He writes to a friend as follows:

"I am still on the ground, but ready at a moment's notice to take to the 'brush' if I cannot get to my farm on the coast.

"When the Mexican authorities were sending a train north, April 23rd, and picking up all foreigners en route, I, not wishing to leave, having too much to look out for, decided I would remain, so the evening the train was exported I made myself scarce. No, I did not have that cot bed cashed in some convenient cave.

"I slept on the rocks that night, a short time, anyway. Most of the night I spent in trying to find the softest place, which I finally decided was my own body. The next day my companion and I hiked it five miles further up into the hills, well loaded with pack, guns, and canteen, no small job.

"That night we slept beside a big boulder at the base of a mountain. The next morning we climbed a furt. We had water forty minutes away, but had to go for it only every two days.

"We were in a spot where no one would think of looking for us and a place where any twenty men would have found it a job to have taken us alive. We had provision for a week and I knew that if the 'dances' were on we could safely return before that time.

"We returned the next day as I received a 'wireless' that the difficulty was for mediation.

"May 1, three torpedo boat destroyers slid into the bay and sent word to all Americans to get out. I decided to get back to my old place, but my companion thought he preferred going bayward and my friends and family brought pressure to bear on me that I want to my farm, where I considered myself safe, as I had three other Americans as companions and we were off the main line of regular travel and could get next to the Yankee blue-jacket when he came in a three-hour hike.

"May 4, I was back here and at work. Your clippings are interesting, especially the article by Cassimiro Rendon. You can judge how true the whole story is from the fact that the fellow is not, nor never has been, governor of Sinaloa.

"The Mexicans are steeped in the old-style diplomacy; deceit, in other words. You have noticed for several years, just such articles appearing from time to time. They fearing intervention, have tried to hide their own weakness by conveying to the American mind that intervention would be a herculean job, and that it would take an army of 1,000,000 men ten years time and millions of dollars to subjugate the Mexican people, not counting the enormous loss of life.

"Now, our pseudo governor indicates that intervention will cost Mexico presented with nearly 1,000,000 defenders; that the equipped

MEXICAN DELEGATES BITTER OVER OUTCOME OF NEGOTIATION

Niagara Falls, July 1.—Mexican delegates to the peace conference are bitter over the outcome of mediation. Friends declared that the delegates came here upon assurance that neutral government would be established in Mexico. They now feel they have been deceived and disappointed at lack of influence of the A. B. C. mediators over the Washington administration, and threaten to make public the details to show that Washington or the A. B. C. envoys duped them.

NEGOTIATION ENDS

Justice Lamar and Frederick Lehmann, American peace envoys, were summoned back to Washington today. They will leave with staffs tonight. Mediation is at an end. Honor Eguero, one of the Mexican envoys, is planning to sail for Liverpool next week.

THOSE MEXICAN

REVELATIONS.

Memphis Commercial Appeal.

That is an amazing story of the dealings of Big Business in Mexico which the New York Herald is printing. It is worthy of the attention of those who desire to get to the fountains of things in Mexico.

It will be found that the men who called themselves Constitutionalists have been in league with one force of exploiters, and while warring in the name of liberty, are most of them Hessians in the service of Big Money. They are not fighting for Mexico, but they are fighting for American Big Business and hope to oust English Big Business and to grab for themselves

all the mines and railroads of Mexico and get from a complacent government concessions for everything that is valuable in the so-called republic.

It is charged that the English syndicates are looting Huerta and the whole civil war is really a dispute of varying groups of Big Business for the mastery.

How foolish it is to throw away

American lives to further the cause of either one of these groups.

The charges that are made by the New York Herald should be investigated by Congress, and if Congress finds them to be founded upon substantial facts we should do one

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT HYDROPHOBIA.

In the current issue of farm and Fireside, the national farm paper published at Springfield, Ohio, Herbert Quick, editor of that publication, goes on with his article showing the damage done to the sheep industry of the United States by worthless dogs. He says that there are many reasons for the proper control of dogs aside from their effects on sheep. He says that dogs disseminate the germs of hog cholera and other live-stock diseases from farm to farm. But there is another reason for the confinement and regulation of dogs, and that is hydrophobia of which dogs are the sole source. Following is an extract from Mr. Quick's article:

"The strict muzzling of dogs in all seasons of the year—for dogs run mad as often in winter as summer—has been shown to be an absolute preventive of rabies. It has been worked out perfectly in Great Britain since 1887. In that year and the two following, deaths from hydrophobia in Great Britain were respectively 17 for 1887, 160 for 1888, and 312 for 1889. In the latter a muzzling law was passed and enforced. In 1890 the number of deaths dropped to 129, and in the two following years to 79 and 39. In 1892 the ordinance was repealed by the dog worshippers. Deaths from the bites of mad dogs rose by the following steps in the years which succeeded: 83, then 248; then 672. Horrified by this sacrifice to unmuzzled dogs the law was passed and enforced again. In 1894 deaths dropped to 138, next to 17, to 8, to 6, to only 1 in all Great Britain; rose in 1902 to 12; and since that time not a single death has occurred in England, Scotland, and Wales from hydrophobia. The muzzling of dogs saves hundreds of tragedies every year.

"All dogs should be muzzled for reasons of common humanity. It this were enforced the worrying of sheep would be largely a thing of the past."

A Muzzling and

A Muzzling.

The people, as soon as they got a chance, settled the problem of a Committee from the Third District, and at the same time administered a rebuke to the congressmen in its attempt to name

THE LAND OF THE FREE.

The dispatched tale of a young Italian who came to America and killed himself when he found that it was not what he was told it was. The young man had a delusion that this was a land of free speech, and free thought. As a matter of fact there is no such thing as free speech, and the only way to enjoy free thought is to say nothing about it. Free speech means that freedom in speech upon certain subjects is granted. In America we have more subjects than in any other country in the world; but we have not free speech by any means. Let a Catholic go into a strong Protestant community and begin to abuse the free schools and the constitution, or let an anti-Catholic agitator go into a Catholic neighborhood and denounce the Pope, and observe how free speech works. Let an anarchist begin to denounce the courts and the government, and he will find free speech is a myth. Let a Socialist begin to denounce property rights—as the Socialist did out in Pratt, Kan., last week—and he is rolled in the gutter and has no protection of police or courts against the mob.

Generally speaking in most American communities there is free speech about many things; things that are no longer in serious doubt or controversy may be freely discussed. But there is no free speech along lines upon which the community has fixed opinions, such as marriage, property, the constitution or the system of taxation in vogue. —Emporia (Kan.) Gazette.

SPORTING NEWS

By Frank G. Menke.
New York, July 2.—Helmie Zimmerman, of the Chicago Cubs, who hasn't one friend among all the umpires, but who isn't losing sleep because of that fact, says: "Golf's a swell thing as an aid to batting."

Helmie then pointed out that the business of swinging the bat, the midiron and other clubs that a golfer uses in making long drives, develops the swinging power of the arm. The business of putting aids all batters who want to lay down a bunt. A putt has to be timed perfectly. The putter must hit the ball just right—not too hard but too easy.

"And that's the way with a bunt," remarks Helmie. "You've got to lay your bunt out far enough so that the catcher can't get it before you reach first, and you've got to drop it in close enough to the plate so that the third baseman or first baseman can't grab it and beat you to the bag with a throw."

In golf you've got to keep your eye on the ball. And it's the same way with baseball. From the way I look at it a good golfer has the makings of a mighty good hitter in a ball game. And I know from experience that golfing keeps the batting eye.

Don't be surprised if one Gunboat Smith sends word over from England that he doesn't care to vote here anymore and that he's taking his citizenship in the land made famous by Bunny Pankhurst.

Gunboat went over to England a short period back for the purpose of swapping punches with one Georges Carpentier of France. When Gunboat landed half of England was at the pier to meet him. A brass band pounded out "Here Comes the Hero" harmony, a reception committee handled Gunboat in a huge automobile and he was whisked away to be wine and dined in kingly style.

They "knew" Gunboat to a reception where everybody wore open-faced clothes. It was a really fashionable crowd. And, strange as it may seem to those who hold punching persons in light regard in this country, the crowd attended, not merely because it wanted to get a close view of America's best white hope, but because it really wanted to meet him, to talk to him, and so it might later boast of the honor.

The greeting England afforded Gunboat surprised him quite a bit at first. But recalling how the American public usually greets prize fighters, he figured that the folks just wanted to get a sort of dim-museum look at him. Since then Gunboat has become convinced that the receptions given him for real showings of pride in the achievements of a man, and he feels so good about it that he may decide to cast his lot with John Bull in future.

You can say all the alighting things you want to about the general policing ability of the cops of this town, but you can't take away from the "force" the credit for having helped a lot to Uncle Sam's Olympic triumphs.

The extremely athletic members of the "force" have scored sixty-three points for the U. S. A. in the different Olympic combats, including materially in winning four championships for Uncle Sam; two at St. Louis, 1904 at Athens, 1908 at London, and 1912 at Stockholm. The five who helped so materially were Martin Sheridan, Bill Frank, Matt McGrath, John Flanagan and Pat McDonald. Egan, Erickson, Jacker Eller and Simon Gillies, the other three, also have been point winners, but not to such an extent as the five other huskies.

Dick Egan of the Dodgers, is a lucky person. Dick used to play with Cincinnati but the Dodgers purchased him from the Reds for $5,000. The Dodgers had planned to pay him just an ordinary salary, but the Reds turned in with a pretty large offer to Richard as soon as he got back from the world tour. Fearing that the Reds might get him, the president of the Dodgers bought their bid and Dick decided to stick with Organized Baseball.

It is said that the Dodgers signed up Dick finally at a salary of $7,000 annually for three years, erasing the ten days notice clause from his contract, which made the contract iron-clad as far as its fulfillment by the Dodger management was concerned.

Dick played pretty good ball in the Dodgers infield for the first five or six weeks and then cracked. He is now on the bench and is of no value whatever to the Dodgers, as they have harpooned a couple of youngsters who look far better than the veteran Egan. But Ebbets must go on paying Dick that $7,000 until the end of the 1916 season unless some other club takes Dick off his hands—a happening that is not probable.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advertisement from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and could not eat or sleep, and had sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines." I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it. I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it. I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me." Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest. AN EARLY MORNING WEDDING—

"Till the Sphinx give up his secret
Till the stars grow cold and dim
Till heaven and earth have passed away,
She has pledged her love to him."

An interesting nuptial celebration, and one that has been looked forward to for the past few months by the numerous friends of the contracting parties, took place this morning at 7 o'clock when Miss Charlie Crawford, third daughter of Mrs. Lou Crawford, became the bride of Dr. Thomas Howard Bradley of Adairville, Ga.

The morning was perfect and all nature was fresh with its mantle of dew when the friends began sending their way to the First Baptist church to witness the interesting ceremony.

The church was artistically decorated; an befitting an early morning wedding, in green throughout. The chancel was entirely covered in green and beautiful ferns and palms lent their beauty and grace to the charming effect. Two pedestals were placed to the front, capped with blooming begonia which formed a fitting place for the bride and groom.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Margaret Tutwiler, artistically rendered on the violin, accompanied by Mrs. Harvey Forrester on organ, the beautiful "Hacardelle," from Tales of Hoffman.

Mr. Royce Crawford sang in his sweetest voice, "O Promise Me," by Clements Scott.

As the beautiful tones of Mendelssohn's wedding march filled the air, the groomsman, Mr. Frank Culver and Mr. Az Flowers, coming singly down opposite aisles, were followed by Mr. Roy Hill and Mr. Bob Crawford the two other grooms men. They were dressed in the conventional black with grey gloves and ties and wore white carnation buttonholes.

Next in order came the bride's maids, Miss Minnie Cave and Miss Bess Hutchinson of Enterprise, followed by Miss Jennie Mae Ward and Miss Evelyn Harris. They were each becomingly attired in beautiful white flingerie dresses, with shepherdess hats, and pink ribbons, carrying shepherdess baskets filled with shasta daisies and asparagus ferns.

The little flower girl, Miss Annie Golden Harmon dressed in white and carrying a basket of daisies, was accompanied by Master Bart Byrd, dressed in white, and also carrying a basket of daisies. They preceded the bride, and her maid of honor, Miss Ruth Stapleton, who wore a beautiful toilette of white organdy, with shepherdess hat of solid white and carried an arm bouquet of white carnation and asparagus ferns.

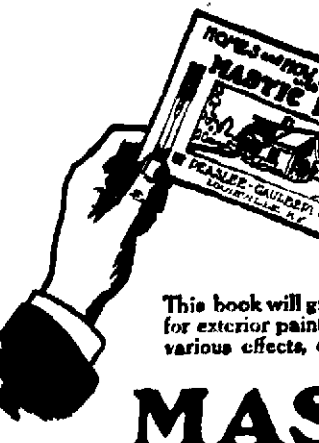

The bride, Miss Charlie Crawford, never looked prettier than on this occasion, when she was tastefully attired in her traveling suit of King's blue broadcloth, with gloves, shoes, and hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of white Kirlanew roses showered with lilies of the valley.

They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Frank King, of Rome, Ga.

Rev. E. H. Jennings, pastor of the First Baptist church performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Harvey Forrester, accompanied by Miss Margaret Tutwiler, on violin, softly played, "Hearts and Flowers" during the service.

Dr. and Mrs. Bradley went from the church directly to the Central train on which they left for Atlanta, Ga., for a few days before going to their future home in Adairville, Ga.

MOTHER OF SCHOOL GIRL

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.

Plover, Iowa.—"From a small child my 13 year old daughter had female weakness. I spoke to three doctors about it and they did not help her any. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had been of great benefit to me, so I decided to have her give it a trial. She has taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound according to directions on the bottle and she is cured of this trouble. She was all run down when she started taking the Compound and her periods did not come right. She was so poorly and weak that I often had to help her dress herself, but now she is regular and is growing strong and healthy."—Mrs. MARTIN HELVIG, Plover, Iowa.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (consulting) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
